

TRANSFER ADMISSION

Former students who have attended another institution since attending the University of the Philippines must qualify on the same basis as new transfer students.

Applicants seeking transfer admission into the University have to satisfy the requirements of the University as well as those of the college/degree program to which they seek to transfer. The following students are disqualified (1158th BOR Meeting 31 January 2002):

- 1) students who have been permanently disqualified from the University. A student, however, who had been previously permanently disqualified from UP may apply for admission to a second bachelor's degree or to a graduate program after completing a bachelor's degree outside the University;
- 2) students who have been dismissed for cause;
- 3) students whose admission was withdrawn due to submission of fake/falsified entrance credentials/ documents;
- 4) students found guilty of dishonesty or any form of misconduct.
